

Cancer Resources and Centers (North Carolina Northeastern Region)

Beaufort County

Marion L. Shepard Cancer Center – The center, located at 1209 Brown St., Washington, offers a breast cancer support group, Fighting It Together support group (FIT); healthy living with cancer; Conversations; Living on After Loss; complementary therapy; and a wellness program. Contact social worker Kristi Fearington, 252-975-4308, ext.106 or oncsw@brhealthsystem.org.

Lifestyles Fitness Center – The pager number for the center is 252-946-4236.

Beaufort County Health Department – The health department is located at 1436 Highland Drive, Washington. The BCCCP Program provides cancer screening funds for women ages 40-64 with incomes at 250% or below federal poverty level and who are under or uninsured or without a medical home. Contact Roxanne Holloman, roxanne.holloman@ncmail.net, or Carol Kinnon, carol.kinnon@ncmail.net, at 252-946-1902 or go to the Web site www.bchd.net.

NC Cooperative Extension – It is located at 155 Airport Road, Washington. Contact Susan Chase, 252-946-0111 or susan_chase@ncsu.edu.

Agape Community Health Clinic – The clinic is located at 118 W. Martin Luther King Blvd., Washington. Contact Melinda Moore, 252-940-0602 or orcbea@yahoo.com.

Beaufort County Hospital – The hospital services include mammography, LC mammography, surgery, oncology, chemotherapy, SN biopsy, clinical trials, rehabilitation, nutrition counseling, and complementary therapy.

American Cancer Society – The programs include Reach to Recovery, Look Good . . . Feel Better, I Can Cope, and Fresh Start. Contact Wendy Boyd, 252-217-2176 or Carol West, 252-945-4480.

BCH Foundation – The foundation provides emergency assistance for cancer patients with financial hardships. Call 252-975-4170.

Beaufort County Social Services – Social Services may be able to provide possible transportation services for patients. Contact Theresa Porter, 252-975-5500 or theresa.porter@beaufort.nc.gov.

Beaufort County Community Action – Community Action is a provider of multiple assistance programs. Call 252-946-0016.

Bertie County

Bertie County Health Department – The health department is located at 102 Rhodes Avenue in Windsor. Contact Jerry Parks, 252-794-5379 or jparks@arhs-nc.org or the Web site, www.arhs-nc.org.

Camden County

Camden County Health Department – The health department is located at 160 US 158, Bldg B., in Camden. Contact Jerry Parks, 252-794-5379 or jparks@arhs-nc.org or the Web site, www.arhs-nc.org.

Carteret County

Carteret County Health Department – The health department is located at 3820 Bridge Street, Morehead City; telephone number - 252-728-8550. Contact J.T. Garrett, health director, drg@carteretcountygov.org; or Andrea Boyd, health educator, andreab@carteretcountygov.org; or Mary Fournier, information & communications, maryf@carteretcountygov.org, or call 252-222-7748.

Carteret General Hospital, Raab Cancer Center – The hospital and cancer center are located at 3500 Arendell Street, Morehead City. Contact Sonda Warrington, the director of outpatient services, 252-808-6630, swarrington@ccgh.org; or Julie Burnham, cancer registrar, 252-808-6532, jburnham@ccgh.org.

Tickled Pink Breast Cancer Support Group – The meetings are held on the 3rd Tuesday of each month at 5:30 pm. Call 252-808-6642.

Chowan County

Chowan County Health Department – The health department is located at 100 Freeman Circle, in Edenton. Contact Jerry Parks, 252-482-6003 or jparks@arhs-nc.org or the Web site, www.arhs-nc.org.

Craven County

Craven County Health Department – Craven County offers the Women’s Breast and Cervical Cancer Early Detection Program. Contact Summerly Cotton, 252-636-4920 or scotton@co.craven.nc.us.

Tabernacle Baptist Church – The church, located at 616 Broad Street, New Bern, holds a support group for cancer survivors and caregivers the 1st and 3rd Wednesday of each month from 5:30-7:00 pm. Call 252-636-5395.

Craven Regional Medical Center – The center’s number is 252-633-8111. Other contact numbers are Radiation Oncology, 252-633-8730; Cancer Registry, 252-633-8790; and Ann Murphy, amurphy@crmcnet.com.

Naval Hospital at Cherry Point – The Naval Hospital can be contacted for Veterans information and other needs. Contact Joy Velasquez, cancer registrar, 910-450-4766 or joy.velasquez@med.navy.mil.

Currituck County

Currituck County Health Department – The health department is located at 2795 Caratoke Hwy., Currituck. Contact Jerry Parks, 252-232-2271 or jparks@arhs-nc.org or the Web site, www.arhs-nc.org.

Dare County

Dare County Health Department – The health department is located at 109 Exeter St., Manteo. Contact names are: Laura Willingham, health educator, supervisor, and Healthy Carolinians coordinator, lauraw@darenc.com; Judith Flagge, nursing director, judithf@darenc.com; or Nancy Easterday, patient nurse navigator, a UNC outreach navigator, neasterd@unch.unc.edu.

UNC Cancer Outreach – This outreach program offers patient navigation and outreach services. Contact Jean Sellers, administrative director, 919-843-8722 or jean_sellers@med.unc.edu.

Outer Banks Hospital – The hospital is located at 4810 South Croatan Hwy., Nags Head. Contact Mary Betsey Kelly, coordinator of the Cancer Resource Center, marybetse.kelly@theobh.com.

American Cancer Society – The American Cancer Society offers Reach to Recovery, Look Good . . . Feel Better, and Fresh Start programs free of charge. Contact Wendy Boyd, 252-217-2176 or Wendy.Boyd@cancer.org; or Carol West, 252-945-4480 or carol.west@cancer.org.

Duplin County

Duplin County Health Department – The health department is located at 340 Seminary St., Kenansville. Breast, Pap, pelvic, rectal, prostate, and testicular screenings are offered. The Breast and Cervical Cancer Program provides cancer screening funds for women ages 40-64 with incomes at 250% or below federal poverty level and who are under or uninsured or without a medical home. Call 910-296-2130.

Duplin General Hospital – The hospital is located at 401 N. Main Street, Kenansville. Call 910-296-0941.

Edgecombe County

American Cancer Society – The American Cancer Society offers Reach to Recovery, Look Good . . . Feel Better, and support groups free of charge. Contact Meghan Shoaf, meghan.shoaf@cancer.org.

Edgecombe County Health Department – The health department is located at 2909 Main Street, in Tarboro. For general information, 252-641-7531 or www.edgecombe.cc.nc.us/County/health.htm. The Breast and Cervical Cancer Program (BCCCP) provides cancer screening funds for women ages 40-64 with incomes at 250% or below federal poverty level and who are under or uninsured or without a medical home. For BCCCP information contact Jenny Newton, jenny.newton@co.edgecombe.nc.us.

Heritage Hospital Cancer Center – The cancer center is located at 111 Hospital Drive, Tarboro. The center offers a breast cancer support group the 2nd Thursday of each month at 7:30 pm. Contact Michelle Cherry, 252-641-8293 or michelle.cherry@uhseast.com; or Kim Ledoux, kledoux@uhseast.com.

Gates County

Gates County Health Department – The health department is located at 29 Medical Center Rd., Gates. Contact 252-357-1380 or www.arhs-nc.org.

Greene County

American Cancer Society – The American Cancer Society offers Reach to Recovery. Contact Sarah Swain, 252-695-9028 or sarah.swain@cancer.org.

Greene County Health Department – The health department is located at 227 Kingold Blvd., Snow Hill. The Breast and Cervical Cancer Program (BCCCP) provides cancer screening funds for women ages 40-64 with incomes at 250% or below federal poverty level and who are under or uninsured or without a medical home. For BCCCP information, contact Erica Payton, health educator, 252-747-8181 or epayton@co.greene.nc.us.

Halifax County

Halifax County Health Department – The health department is located at 19 N. Dobbs Street, Halifax. The Breast and Cervical Cancer Program (BCCCP) provides cancer screening funds for women ages 40-64 with incomes at 250% or below federal poverty level and who are under or uninsured or without a medical home. Contact Laura Ellis, health educator, 252-583-5021, Ext. 256 or ellisl@halifaxnc.com; Lynda Smith, health director, smithl@halifaxnc.com; or Elizabeth Buffalo, Working on Wellness, buffaloe2@halifaxnc.com.

There are various resources in educational breast cancer outreach done throughout the county. Rural Health Group provides support groups for those battling cancer; call 252-536-5000. The Roanoke Valley Cancer Center provides radiation therapy; call 252-537-1717. Christy Lyles provides financial assistance services at the health department; call 252-583-5021, Ext. 312 or lylesc@halifaxnc.com.

Halifax County Dept of Social Services – Social services provides emergency assistance for crisis and emergency situations as well as drug assistance. Call 252-536-2511.

Our Community Hospital – The hospital is located at 921 Jr. High School Rd., Scotland Neck. Call 252-826-4144.

Halifax Regional Medical Center – The medical center is located at 250 Smith Church Road, Roanoke Rapids. Call 252-535-8011.

American Cancer Society – The American Cancer Society offers Reach to Recovery, Fresh Start, and support groups free of charge. Contact Meghan Shoaf, 252-287-8920 or meghan.shoaf@cancer.org.

Hertford County

American Cancer Society – The American Cancer Society offers Reach to Recovery and support groups free of charge. Contact Meghan Shoaf, 252-287-8920 or meghan.shoaf@cancer.org.

Roanoke-Chowan Hospital – The hospital is located at 500 Academy Street South, Ahoskie. Call 252-209-3000. The Breast and Cervical Cancer Program (BCCCP) provides cancer screening funds for women ages 40-64 with incomes at 250% or below federal poverty level and who are under or uninsured or without a medical home. For additional resources contact Crystal Dempsey, disparity gap regional coordinator, 252-358-7833 or crystal.dempsey@ncmail.net.

Hyde County

American Cancer Society – The American Cancer Society offers Reach to Recovery. Contact Wendy Boyd, 252-217-2176 or wendy.boyd@cancer.org; or Carol West, 252-945-4480 or carol.west@cancer.org.

Hyde County Health Department – The health department is located at 1151 Main St., Swan Quarter. Call 252-926-4200 or www.hydehealth.com; or contact Wesley Smith, health director, 252-926-4387 or wsmith@hydehealth.com.

Jones County

Jones County Health Department – The health department, located at 418 Hwy 58 North, Trenton, offers screenings, community education, referrals, and provides monetary assistance. Call 252-488-1221 or 252-488-9111 for Kristen Richmond-Hoover, health director, Kristen.hoover@ncmail.net or Constance Foushee, health educator, constance.foushee@ncmail.net. For general information contact www.jonescountyhealth.com.

Lenoir County

American Cancer Society – The American Cancer Society offers Reach to Recovery, Man to Man, and I Can Cope. Contact Sarah Swain, 252-695-9028 or sarah.swain@cancer.org

Lenoir Memorial Cancer Center – The cancer center is located at 703 Doctor's Drive, across from the emergency entrance. It provides outpatient support, counseling, education, and nutrition guidance as well as financial and transportation assistance, screenings, and education. For general information call 252-522-7600 or www.lenoirmemorial.org. Or contact Cheryl Register, 252-522-7841 or cregister@lenoir.org.

Lenoir County Council on Aging – The Council on Aging is located at 112 East Blount Street. Contact 252-527-1545 or www.lenoircco.org.

Lenoir County Health Department – The health department is located on 201 N. McLewean Street, Kinston. The Breast and Cervical Cancer Program (BCCCP) provides cancer screening funds for women ages 40-64 with incomes at 250% or below federal poverty level and who are under or uninsured or without a medical home. Contact 252-526-4212 or www.co.lenoir.nc.us/departments/hd.

MTW (Martin/Tyrrell/Washington) Counties

American Cancer Society – The American Cancer Society offers Reach to Recovery, Look Good . . . Feel Better, and Man to Man programs in Martin County. Reach to Recovery is offered in Tyrrell County. Reach to Recovery and support groups are offered in Washington County. Contact Wendy Boyd, 252-217-2176 or wendy.boyd@cancer.org; or Carol West, 252-945-4480; carol.west@cancer.org.

Martin-Tyrrell-Washington District Health Department – The health department is located at 210 West Liberty Street, Williamston; at 198 NC Highway 45 North, Plymouth; and 408 Broad Street, Columbia. The Breast and Cervical Cancer Program provides cancer screening funds for women ages 40-64 with incomes at 250% or below federal poverty level and who are under or uninsured or without a medical home. Contacts include: John Fulk, health educator, 255-793-1630 or john.fulk@ncmail.net; or Kathleen DeVore Jones, health director, 252-791-3101, Kathleen.devore.jones@ncmail.net; or Billie Patrick, health educator, 252-793-3125 or billie.patrick@ncmail.net.

Martin County Transit – This transit company provides public ground transportation services. Call 252-789-4390.

Washington County Hospital – The hospital is located at 958 US Hwy 64 East in Plymouth. Services offered include oncology, mammography, and breast and colorectal screenings. Contact 252-793-4135 or <http://www.wchonline.com>.

Martin General Hospital – This hospital is located at 310 S. McCaskey Road, in Williamston. Contact 252-809-6300 or www.martingeneral.com.

Columbia Medical Center – This only medical center in Tyrrell County is located at 208 North Broad Street in Columbia. Call 252-796-0689.

Tyrrell County Cooperative Extension – The Cooperative Extension program provides education, chronic illness programs, and senior programs to individuals in Tyrrell and surrounding communities and counties. Contact Dee Furlough, dee_furlough@ncsu.edu.

Nash County

Nash Health-care Systems – The health department is located at 2460 Curtis Ellis Drive, Rocky Mount. It provides a complete complement of care tailored to each patient’s individual needs as well as nutritional information, educational materials, support groups, free cancer screenings, and it offers the Cancer Resource Center. An ostomy support group meets monthly at Nash General Hospital for anyone with an ostomy as a result of bladder or colorectal cancers and the Keeping Abreast support group meets monthly. For information contact 252-443-8000 or www.nhcs.org; or contact Chris Wood, director, 252-443-8947 or clwood@nhcs.org; or Lisa Gimber, cancer registrar, 252-443-8672 or lrgimber@nhcs.org.

Area L AHEC – Contact Alice Schenall, assistant director, 252-972-6958 or Alice.schenall@arealahec.org.

Nash County Health Department – The health department, located at 214 South Barnes Street, Nashville, provides transportation assistance and Mammograms for Life, a program that provides mammogram screenings for underinsured, low-income, and underserved women in Nash County as well as community outreach and education emphasizing early detection of breast cancer. Contact Capri McDonald, capri.mcdonald@nashcountync.gov. Financial assistance is also provided; contact Lorie Perry, RN, 252-459-1316 or lorie.perry@nashcountync.gov. General information, www.health.co.nash.nc.us.

American Cancer Society – The American Cancer Society offers Reach to Recovery, Look Good . . . Feel Better, Road to Recovery programs as well as support groups. Call Patricia Earnhardt Tyndall, 919-418-5017.

Northampton County

American Cancer Society – The American Cancer Society offers Reach to Recovery. Contact Meghan Shoaf, meghan.shoaf@cancer.org, or Carol West, carol.west@cancer.org.

Northampton County Health Department – The health department is located at 9495 NC 305 Hwy. in Jackson. The Breast and Cervical Cancer Program provides cancer screening funds for women ages 40-64 with incomes at 250% or below federal poverty level and who are under or uninsured or without a medical home; the services are provided the 2nd and 4th Thursday of each month, 8:30 am - 3:00 pm. Contact 252-534-5841 or northampton.hd@ncmail.net.

Onslow County

Onslow County Health Department – The health department, located at 612 College Street in Jacksonville, provides education and mammograms via the Mammogram Bus; call 910-347-2154, Ext. 82226 for details. For general information contact 910-347-7042 or www.co.onslow.nc.us/health.

Foundation for Hospice – The foundation addresses palliative and end-of-life care. Call 910-455-3925.

Onslow Memorial Hospital – The hospital is located at 317 Western Blvd., Jacksonville, and provides mammograms, ultrasounds, and bone densitometry at the Women’s Imaging Center; call 910-577-2690. For general information call 910-577-2556.

Naval Hospital at Camp Lejeune – This Naval Hospital, located at 100 Brewster Blvd., Camp Lejeune, can be contacted for Veterans information and other needs. Contact Joy Velasquez, cancer registrar, 910-450-4766 or joy.velasquez@med.navy.mil.

Pamlico County

Pamlico County Health Department – The health department is located at 203 North St., Bayboro. It provides cancer screenings for adults; the Breast and Cervical Control Program provides breast and cervical cancer screenings and mammograms; and chronic disease management is provided by a family nurse practitioner. Contact Tamara Jones, health educator, 252-745-5111 or tamara.jones@ncmail.net.

Pasquotank County

Pasquotank County Health Department – The health department is located at 711 Roanoke Ave., Elizabeth City. Contact Jerry Parks, 252-338-4400 or jparks@arhs-nc.org.

Perquimans County

Perquimans County Health Department – The health department is located at 103 ARPDC St., Hertford. Contact Jerry Parks, 252-426-2100 or jparks@arhs-nc.org.

Pitt County

American Cancer Society – The American Cancer Society, located at 930B Wellness Drive, Greenville, offers Reach to Recovery, Look Good . . . Feel Better, Road to Recovery, Man to Man, and I Can Cope programs. Contact Sarah Swain, 252-695-9028 or sarah.swain@cancer.org.

Pitt County Health Department – The health department is located at 201 Government Circle, Greenville. The Breast and Cervical Cancer Program provides cancer screening funds for women ages 40-64 with incomes at 250% or below federal poverty level and who are under or uninsured or without a medical home. Call 252-902-2305.

Pitt County Social Services – Social services, located in Greenville, provides transportation, medication, and emergency assistance. Call 252-902-1110.

Family Support Network of Eastern NC – This agency, located in Greenville, offers support to people with a family member who has cancer. Call 252-328-9332.

First Born Community Center – The center, located in Grimesland, provides rent, utilities, food, medical, and other kinds of assistance. The center is open the 2nd and 4th Saturday of the month, 10 am – 12:00 noon. Contact 252-758-6147 or www.fbcdc.us.

Tar River NC Catholic Social Ministries – The Ministries, located in Greenville, provides food, clothing, and counseling for chronically ill patients and loved ones. Call 252-355-5111.

Pitt County Memorial Hospital Cancer Services – The Cancer Services includes a variety of programs and services that are listed below. For general information contact www.uhseast.com. For support groups call 252-847-9450. Other contacts are:

- Phyllis DeAntonio, director, 252-847-7867 or pdeanton@pcmh.com
- Colleen Fenlon-Coda, outreach coordinator, 252-847-7867, colleen.fenlon-coda@pcmh.com
- Debra Mascarenhas, patient navigator, debra.mascarenhas@pcmh.com
- Henry Mascarenhas, Gama Knife coordinator, Hmascare@pcmh.com

Laryngectomee Association – This association, a support group for laryngectomy patients, families, and friends, meets every 3rd Saturday at 10:00 a.m. at Eastern Carolina ENT Head and Neck Surgery, Greenville. For more information call 252-752-5227.

Camp Dove – This camp is a three-day retreat that offers adult cancer survivors the opportunity to enjoy fellowship, relaxation, and activities by the sea.

Camp Rainbow – This camp is a one-week camp for pediatric cancer patients and their siblings.

Brain Trust – This support group, for patients living with a benign or malignant brain tumor, meets the 2nd Wednesday of the month at the Hope Lodge. Contact Cathi Eadus, RN or Henry Mascarenhas, RN, 252-847-2611.

I Can Cope – This American Cancer Society program is a series of educational sessions for people with cancer and their families and friends. Programs are held throughout the region. Call 1-888-227-6333.

Leukemia Family Support Group – This support group is a series of educational sessions for people (and for their families and friends) with leukemia, Hodgkin disease, non-Hodgkin lymphoma, and multiple myeloma. The group meets quarterly.

Living On After Loss – This support group, for adults dealing with the loss of a family member or loved one, is an 8-week series that is offered quarterly. It includes 2 educational sessions and 6 support sessions. Registration is needed.

Look Good . . . Feel Better – This American Cancer Society program is a support group that helps patients face and deal with changes in physical appearance resulting from cancer treatment. Call the American Cancer Society, 1-888-227-6333, to register.

Look Good . . . Feel Better is offered on 3 West Oncology on the 4th Monday of the month, 12:00 noon to 2:00 pm. To register for this, contact Paula Bowen, MSW, LCSW, 252-847-7943 or page 252-847-4999, pager# 3134.

Making It – This support group for patients with breast cancer meets at 5:30 p.m. on the 3rd Monday of every month in the Hope Lodge Conference Room.

Man-to-Man – This group provided education classes and support for men with prostate cancer. It meets the 2nd Tuesday of each month in the Hope Lodge Conference Room.

New Colors – This support group for children dealing with the loss of a family member or loved one requires registration. Call 252-847-5396.

Pathways to Hope – This monthly bereavement support group for persons that have experienced the loss of a loved one meets the 3rd Thursday of each month at 5:30 p.m. in the American Cancer Society McConnell-Raab Hope Lodge Conference Room at 930 Wellness Drive (near the ViQuest Center off Stantonsburg Rd). Free parking is available. The loss does not have to be related to cancer and can include the death of a friend, sibling, parent, spouse, or child.

Positive Image – This support group for cancer patients focuses on mutual support and stress management. It meets on the 1st and 3rd Mondays of each month from 5:30 - 7:00 p.m. at Jarvis Memorial United Methodist Church in Greenville.

Just for Children – This support group is for children, ages 4-16, whose parents have been diagnosed with cancer. The group helps them understand what cancer is and help them express their fears, hopes, and dreams. This 4-week program meets in the Gasklins Leslie Building at Pitt County Memorial Hospital. Call Paula Bowen, 847-7943, to register.

Leo Jenkins Cancer Center – This cancer center offers a variety of cancer related programs and services. Contact Beverly Cratch, 252-744-3751, cratchb@ecu.edu or Jenny Jackson, social worker. Other contacts are:

- Thoracic Oncology Clinic (Lung Cancer Clinic), Theresa Parent, 252-744-1789
- Breast Wellness Center, 252-744-1888
- Hematology/Oncology, 252-744-2560 or 252-744-2383
- Surgical Oncology, Emmanuel Zervous, MD, zervose@ecu.edu
- Gynecologic Oncology, 252-744-3585

Laryngectomy Support Group group for laryngectomy patients, their families, and friends meets every 3rd Sunday of the month at 10:00 am at Eastern Carolina ENT Surgery, Greenville. Call 252-752-5227.

Brain Trust – This support group, for patients (and their family members) with benign or malignant brain tumors meets the 2nd Wednesday of each month at the Hope Lodge Conference Room, 930 Wellness Drive, Greenville, 5:30 pm. Contact Cathy Eadus, 252-847-2611.

Camp Rainbow – Camp Rainbow, a summer camping experience for children (and their siblings) with cancer or hemophilia, is a week-long experience with an estimated 100 campers attending each year. Children who have lost a sibling to cancer are also strongly encouraged to attend. The camp is staffed by physicians, nurses, and other volunteers who provide necessary medical support and emotional encouragement.

The sponsor of Camp Rainbow is the Department of Pediatric Hematology/Oncology, East Carolina University. The Camp is located at Camp Don-Lee, located on the Neuse River near Arapahoe, North Carolina. Contact Jacquelyn P. Sauls, Rainbow Services Director, 252-744-4676 or saulsj@ecu.edu. The Web site is <http://www.ecu.edu/cs-dhs/pediatrics/Pediatrics-Camp-Rainbow.cfm>.

Living On After Loss – This support group, for adults dealing with the loss of a family member or loved one, is an 8-week series that is offered quarterly. It includes 2 educational sessions and 6 support sessions. Registration is needed. Contact Kimberly Garner 252-847-9450 or 1-800-223-9328.

Pathways to Hope – This monthly bereavement support group for persons that have experienced the loss of a loved one meets the 3rd Thursday of each month at 5:30 p.m. in the American Cancer Society McConnell-Raab Hope Lodge Conference Room at 930 Wellness Drive (near the ViQuest Center off Stantonsburg Rd). Free parking is available. The loss does not have to be related to cancer and can include the death of a friend, sibling, parent, spouse, or child. Contact Paula Bowen, 252-847-7943 or 1-800-223-9328.

New Colors – This support group for children dealing with the loss of a family member or loved one requires registration. This 8-week series includes 2 educational sessions and 6 support sessions. Age groups are: 5-8 years; 9-12 years; 13-18 years. Contact Paula Bowen, 252-847-7943 or 1-800-223-9328.

Man-to-Man – This group provided education classes and support for men with prostate cancer. It meets the 2nd Tuesday of each month in the Hope Lodge Conference Room, 930 Wellness Drive, Greenville, at 6:30 pm. Call 252-847-2611 or 1-800-223-9328.

Positive Image – This support group for cancer patients focuses on mutual support and stress management. It meets on the 1st and 3rd Mondays of each month at 5:30 p.m. Contact 252-940-0994 or e-mail eakesg@ecu.edu.

Wayne County

Wayne Memorial Hospital – The hospital, located at 2700 Wayne Memorial Drive, Goldsboro, provides radiation oncology to patients. For general information contact 919-736-1110 or www.waynehealth.org. Or contact Karen Montgomery, cancer registrar, 919-731-6336 or kmontgomery@waynehealth.com.

Wayne County Health Department – The health department is located at 301 North Herman Street in Goldsboro. The Breast and Cervical Cancer Program provides cancer screening funds for women ages 40-64 with incomes at 250% or below federal poverty level and who are under or uninsured or without a medical home. The WiseWoman program, a sister program to BCCCP, provides screening to BCCCP women for weight, blood pressure, cholesterol, diabetes. Contact Nan Sentz-Foy, BCCCP/WiseWoman coordinator, nanette.sentz-foy@ncmail.net.

Southeastern Medical Oncology Center – The center is located at 203 Cox Blvd., Goldsboro, and provides medication/financial assistance, equipment, wigs, prosthesis, peer support, transportation assistance, information, patient advocacy, rent utilities, food, and clothing assistance; call 919-580-0000. “Pennies from Angels” assistance program is provided; call 919-587-9070. There is an art class for patients as well as a cancer support item shop (includes bras, prosthesis, hats, wigs, makeup, etc.); contact Helen Harwood, patient advocate, 919-587-9070 or hharwood@cancersmoc.com.

Disabled American Veterans Transportation Network – This service provides transportation to VA hospitals. Call 919-736-3114.

Wilson County

American Cancer Society – The American Cancer Society offers Reach to Recovery and Look Good . . . Feel Better, Road to Recovery. Call Patricia Earnhardt Tyndall, 919-418-5017.

Wilson Medical Center – The center is located at 1705 South Tarboro Street, Wilson. It includes Wilson Regional Breast Clinic (medical oncology, radiation oncology, surgeon, and nursing) that provides mammograms, ultrasounds, breast MRI; contact Deborah Thorne, cancer registrar, 252-399-8054 or Deborah.thorne@wilmed.org. For the Mother’s Day Mammogram Program that offers free cancer screenings to women contact Robin Williams, coordinator, robin.williams@wilmed.org. For general information contact 252-399-8040 or www.wilmed.org.

Wilson County Health Department – The health department is located at 1801 Glendale Drive, Wilson. It provides breast exams, Pap test, pelvic exams, and cancer screenings/education. The Breast and Cervical Cancer Program provides cancer screening funds for women ages 40-64 w/ incomes at 250% or below federal poverty level and who are under/uninsured or without a medical home. Call 252-237-3141 or contact Rebecca Hunt-Hawley, director of nursing, rhawley@wilson-co.com; or Barbara Williams, health educator, bwilliams@wilson-co.com; or Dawn Lashley, BCCCP coordinator, dlashley@wilson-co.com.

Southeastern Medical Oncology Center (SMOC) – The center, located at 2624 Ortho Drive, in Wilson, provides medication/financial assistance, equipment, wigs, prosthesis, peer support, transportation assistance, information and patient advocacy. A support group meets monthly for cancer patients, caregivers, and survivors. SMOC offers nutrition education for chemotherapy patients and offers the Look Good . . . Feel Better program of the American Cancer Society. Call 252-293-0777. For financial assistance, contact Terry Watson, twatson@cancersmoc.com.