

Cancer Resources and Centers (North Carolina Southeastern Region)

Bladen County

Bladen County Free Clinic – The Free Clinic provides prostate and breast screenings, in addition to infectious disease screenings, diagnosis, and treatments, Monday through Thursday. Contact Tina Reeves, 910-669-3272 or tina@bladencharge.com.

Bladen County Hospital – The hospital, located in Elizabethton, is a 58-bed facility that has a birthing center and mammography services/screenings. Call 910-862-5100.

Sisters Network – The Network is a breast cancer support system and group for African-American women and family members. Contact Irene Stewart, 910-738-3175 or sistersnetsenc@aol.com.

Brunswick County

Breast and Cervical Cancer Control Program (BCCCP) – Brunswick County offers this weekly by appointment to women who are under 200% poverty and who have no insurance. Contact Fred Michaels, 910-231-3362 or fmichael@brunscoco.net.

Brunswick Community Hospital – The hospital offers breast biopsy with sentinel node mapping, two FDA and ADR accredited mammography units, and diagnostic X-rays. Call 910-755-8121.

Pink Angels Bags – These comfort bags are available upon request for women diagnosed with breast cancer. Each bag is filled with a pink towel, pillow for under the arms, blanket, apron, and journal. Contact Mary Earp, 910-399-2584.

Look Good . . . Feel Better – This free American Cancer Society program is located at South Atlantic Radiology in Supply. It is held on the first Monday of each month. Call 910-254-4870.

New Hope Clinic – The clinic, both non-profit/private practices, offers specialized medical care to adults with no insurance. Contact Connie Hendrix, 910-457-6044.

Columbus County

Donayre Cancer Center – Located in Whiteville, Donayre offers screenings, diagnostic assessments, chemo/radiation services to patients with insurance. It is affiliated with Columbus Regional health-care system. Call 910-641-8220.

Breast and Cervical Cancer Control Program (BCCCP) - offered by appointment at Columbus County Health Department in Whiteville by appointment, 8:30 – 5:00, Monday through Friday. Call 910-640-6615.

Cumberland County

Breast and Cervical Cancer Control Program (BCCCP) – The Cumberland County Health Department offers this program to women who are 200% poverty level, uninsured, and over the age of 50. Call 910-433-3600.

Prostate Cancer Support Group – Dr. James Nolan, Fayetteville Urology Association located at 1786 Metro Medical Drive, Fayetteville, is the support group contact. Call Dr. James Nolan, 910-485-8151.

Cape Fear Valley Cancer Center – This CoC-approved cancer center, located on Owen Drive in Fayetteville, offers a variety of screenings, support groups, and screenings for men, women, and children. A blood cancer support group has recently been added to the supports groups offered at the hospital. Call 910-609-6337.

The Blood and Cancer Clinic – The Blood and Cancer Clinic is located on Purdue Drive in Fayetteville. It is a private clinic that specializes in the diagnosis and treatment of cancers and diseases of the blood. Cancer screenings, treatments, and clinical trials are some of the services offered at the clinic. Call 910-483-8586 or e-mail info@bloodandcancerclinic.com.

The Sherri Arnold-Graham Foundation – This foundation is a ministry for breast cancer awareness & support. There are many faith-based partnerships with Cape Fear Valley Health System, Fayetteville, and Rex Hospital, Raleigh. Hundreds of uninsured and underinsured women can now receive quality mammograms at no cost due to Dr. Graham's efforts.

Look Good . . . Feel Better - The Look Good . . . Feel Better program is held the third Monday of each month, 9 - 11:00 am at Cape Fear Valley Cancer Center and 6 - 8:00 pm at Health Pavilion North Cancer Center. Call 910-609-7618 to register. Program information is also available by calling 1-800-227-2345 or by visiting www.lookgoodfeelbetter.org.

Harnett County

Harnett County Health Department – The health department is located on County Complex Drive in Lillington, and offers women the Rex Mobile Mammography van/unit quarterly for breast exams and education on cancer prevention. Call 910-893-7550.

Hoke County

Hoke County Health Department - The Health Education office oversees the coordination of the Healthy Hoke Task Force Coalition. Call 910-875-3717, Ext. 2104 or Ext. 2106.

Moore County

Moore Regional Hospital and Cancer Center – An affiliate of First Health of the Carolinas, Pinehurst, the hospital provides the community and surrounding areas with cancer screenings, treatments, and a variety of patient and caregivers support groups. The cancer center is a CoC-approved facility and the community health sector has an extensive clinical trials. Call 910-715-1000.

Breast and Cervical Cancer Control Program – The program, located in the Moore County Health Department, is for women over the age of 45-50 and who are uninsured and have 200% of poverty level. Women receive free breast and cervical screening and treatment with BCCCP Medicaid. Call 910-947-3395.

New Hanover County

USTOO – USTOO is a prostate cancer support group that meets monthly at New Hanover Regional Medical Center in Wilmington. Contact George Gardner, 910-350-2728 or GGar104641@aol.com.

Look Good . . . Feel Better – A free American Cancer Society therapeutic beauty program where patients receive gift bags and a make-up session in order to feel energized and revamped post- and pre-treatment. Call 1-910-254-4870 or visit www.lookgoodfeelbetter.org.

Two available locations:

- Dottie's Beauty Court – 3rd Monday of each month at 10:00 a.m.
- Sheila's Wig and Hair Care – 2nd Tuesday of the each month at 3:00 p.m.

The Pink Ribbon of Hope Store – Women get wig fittings, support groups, and/or recovery camisoles. The store partners with Zimmer Cancer Center on events and fundraising activities/event promotions. Many of the items in the store are at discounted prices and payment support programs are offered. Contact Jeanette Baltezgar – jeanettebaltezgar@pinkribbonofhope.com.

Breast and Cervical Cancer Control Program (BCCCP) – New Hanover County Health Department breast and cervical cancer screening and treatment program run in Wilmington for uninsured women under 200% poverty level. Women are seen by appointment. Contact Nancy Russ, NRuss@nhcgov.com.

Zimmer Cancer Center – This cancer center opened in 2000 and is a CoC-approved facility in Wilmington. It offers mobile mammography that runs quarterly throughout Wilmington and Cape Fear area, imaging services, inpatient oncology unit, surgical breast services with pink ribbon bags provided during treatment, palliative care, and hospice. Director, Beth Matthews, Beth.Matthews@nhhn.org.

Tileston Health Clinic – A Free Clinic in Wilmington that specializes in providing free screenings, by appointment, to underserved and uninsured men, women, and children. Contact Trish Doyle, 910-343-8736 or tilestonclinic4@ec.rr.com.

Pender County

Pender Memorial Hospital – Lab and radiation services are available, in Burgaw. It is affiliated with Zimmer and New Hanover Regional Medical Center, Wilmington. Call 910-259-5451.

Breast and Cervical Cancer Control Program (BCCCP) – Breast and cervical cancer screening and treatment program for women who are above age 50 and who are uninsured and 200% poverty is offered by appointment at Pender Health Department, Burgaw.

Robeson County

Gibson Cancer Center – This cancer center, located in Lumberton, is a CoC-approved facility and is affiliated with the SRMC, Lumberton. It provides treatment space for patients and a resource room for caregivers and family members. Contact Pamela Clark, 910-617-5730.

Sisters Network – The Sisters Network is a breast cancer support system and group for African-American women and family members. Contact Irene Stewart, 910-738-3175 or sistersnetsenc@aol.com.

Sampson County

Breast and Cervical Cancer Control Program (BCCCP) – The services are offered to women at the Sampson County Health Department by appointment to women 200% poverty level and uninsured. Call 910-592-1131.

Sampson Regional Cancer Center – The cancer center is located on Beaman Street in Clinton. It serves as a treatment facility and support system for cancer patients and their family. It is within walking distance to the hospital and local Medical Oncology Center. Call 910-590-2644.

Tri-County Community Health Center – Located in Newton Grove the center provides comprehensive primary health-care services integrated to meet the individualized needs of all families in the communities regardless of where they live, what they do, or who they are. It fosters a compassionate health-care delivery system that cares, helps, cures, and educates in an atmosphere of mutual respect. Call Sharon Brown-Singleton, 910-567-6194.

Southeastern Medical Oncology (SMOC) – SMOC gives services to individuals throughout southeastern NC and is viewed by citizens of Duplin and Sampson Counties as the cancer center of choice. Radiation, chemotherapy, and support groups are offered. Call 1-888-891-7813 for the location.

Look Good . . . Feel Better – Beginning in August 2009, The Look Good...Feel Better program will be held the third Monday of each month at 3:00 pm at Duplin General Hospital. Call Kathy Creech, 910-296-2843, to register.

Scotland County

Scotland Cancer Center – Located in Laurinburg, this cancer center provides patients and caregivers with two support groups in addition to a resource room as well as treatments and screenings for cancer patients. Contact Mary Callahan-Lopez, 910-291-7000 or Mary.Callahan-Lopez@scotlandhealth.org.

Toll Free Numbers for Additional Support

- American Cancer Society: 1-800-ACS-2345
- Smoking Quitline: 1-877-44U-QUIT (1-877-448-7848);
TTY: 1-800-332-8615
- Susan G. Komen for the Cure: 1-877-GO KOMEN (1-877-465-6636)
- Leukemia and Lymphoma Society: 1-800-955-4572
- Colon Cancer Alliance: Helpline 1-877-422-2030
- USTOO Prostate Cancer: 1-800-80-Us TOO (1-800-808-7866)